What is the gift you have received from TetraMap? Global community, synergy of nature, not boxing people in, my contribution to world n peace through communication | TetraMap turned a military man to a humble gardener. TetraMap has given me a tool to impact more people globally to increase the awareness of humanity. Special thanks for empowering and inspiring lives. May the universe be with you. | A compass for my life | Perspective, love, generosity, kindness, wonderful community, joy... TetraMap has enriched my live and is a huge gift for me. Thank you, Kirstin from Germany | Start our with a reassurance of everyone in their strengths | TetraMap is my life hack! I have learned to be a better human a better kaitiaki of people and planet because of this kaupapa - Naketa | It's simplicity to work in different cultures and to enable others to quickly identify the preferences of others, aiding better communication. Community - the warmth and friendliness. | What is the most important thing in the world - it is people, it is people, it is people. TetraMap helps me navigate and understand the nature of people | realisation that everyone is completely different. | A powerful, impactful language that forms a solid foundation on which culture and behaviours shift for the better. - Ireland | High Energy!! | Hiểu mình - Hiểu người - Tôn. trọng sự khác biệt | TetraMap really resonated with me!! Learning about myself from a different perspective was fun, engaging and sooooo accurate! Bringing this back to my team and wider colleagues. The global connections. | I feel that life is peaceful and happy, and my relationships are good. | I can connect with many people in the world and everyone is wonderful. | Special thanks to the TetraMap family for empowering and inspiring lives and may the universe be with you. | TetraMap gave me a better way of understanding myself and others.

Insights, inspirations and practical tools for transformation from the phenomenal vision, creativity and commitment of Yoshimi, Jon and all the TetraMap team. Thank you and CONGRATULATIONS! | TetraMap helps me recognize the natural tendencies in my own personality, as well as those of my child and my husband. It helps us understand each other better. | TetraMap can be applied anywhere, anytime. | For myself, I know how to communicate and behave better. | A safe place among like minded people.

The gift of community

The gift of patience and understanding of the diversity in things and people around me, which allows me the patience to find synergy in mostly all things critical and in general. | Most importantly the friendships and love given and demonstrated by Jon and Yoshimi. | After practicing TetraMap, I found myself truly at peace, calm, cooperative and in harmony with the relationships around me. Everything became better when I listened more and knew how to share. | Happy Enjoy. | I think I have such a lucky to be one of the members of this community. I'm a totally beginner for this adventure. | TetraMap is more than a model, framework, approach and tool, it's a community.

It has been a gift of simplicity yet depth, of reliability and stability. It's been accessible and ready when I needed it. It's been a lovely journey that is not yet over. Thank you. | Every day is a TetraDay! A tool, model, framework and approach that has served me well in both my personal and professional life Generosity from the TetraMap community | I've become part of a community of like minded individuals | It's given me a language that forms such a fantastic and powerful foundation for valuing diversity and communicating and collaborating really well with each other. | Pure Joy | Love, respect, understanding, action! Yoshi | I have better understanding of why people behave the way they behave. And I have taught me to understand people for better communication | So many. My best gift is the quote: "when you get past reacting to behaviour, you can deal with the issue at hand". Still use today to get people thinking deeply about behaviour, value diversity. | HUGE change in my mind and heart about the meaning of interdependence and its impact to minimize world conflicts. | I love the simplicity to apply TetraMap in our daily activities! | I can connect with many people in the world and everyone is wonderful. | Better Communication. New perspectives, acceptance of natural differences clarity in purpose and behavior I feel life is simpler, happier. Thanks | Thanks to the TetraMap community I have the support I need to embark on this journey. | Multi-generational benefits.
